

The Scarlett Letter

The Golden Triangle Irish Setter Club, Inc

January 2009

Welcome 2009! A new year, and a fresh start, as we concentrate on our future.

Looking back on 2008 - a year in review~~~

We had two very successful Specialties. We are proud to have supported the Irish entries for 6 shows. We held several events; RDO and Santa Photos, both proving to be great days of Teamwork and Fun. Our Community Service Project; the K9 Officer and his Bite Suit, was another event with effort to be proud of. Our Red Cross presentation was an evening of information and education. We had our fund raising; Sarris, the lottery and Home Interior Candles, all being a great success with little effort. We were instrumental in rescue placements to wonderful new Forever Homes. We've added new members. We added MANY new puppies, some purchased and others were rescue placements. We continue to grow and move ahead. Our wonderful dogs and great friends got us over the bumps in the road and helped us to weather the storms. We stand strong and remain a team and family, helping us to grow closer. So we welcome the New Year, and will continue to be proud.

From the Dog's Point of view~~~~~

I Rescued A Human Today.

Her eyes met mine as she walked down the corridor peering apprehensively into the kennels. I felt her need instantly and knew I had to help her. I wagged my tail, not too exuberantly, so she wouldn't be afraid. As she stopped at my kennel I blocked her view from a little accident I had in the back of my cage. I didn't want her to know that I hadn't been walked today. Sometimes the shelter keepers get too busy and I didn't want her to think poorly of them. As she read my kennel card I hoped that she wouldn't feel sad about my past. I only have the future to look forward to and want to make a difference in someone's life.

She got down on her knees and made little kissy sounds at me. I shoved my shoulder and side of my head up against the bars to comfort her. Gentle fingertips caressed my neck; she was desperate for companionship. A tear fell down her cheek and I raised my paw to assure her that all would be well. Soon my kennel door opened and her smile was so bright that I instantly jumped into her arms.

I would promise to keep her safe. I would promise to always be by her side. I would promise to do everything I could to see that radiant smile and sparkle in her eyes.

I was so fortunate that she came down my corridor.

So many more are out there who haven't walked the corridors.

So many more to be saved.

At least I could save one.

I rescued a human today.

A time for Reflection~~~~~

You Raise Me Up - A Prayer

(hymne a l'amour)

"When I am down and, oh my soul, so weary;
When troubles come and my heart burdened be;
Then, I am still and wait here in the silence,
Until you come and sit awhile with me.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up, to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong, when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up ♦ To more than I can be"

"I would like to dedicate this psalm/prayer to the members of our club and all of our four-legged angels who own us.

*With love, Judy
Happy New Year"*

Christmas Party - Thank you to Deb and Skip for offering their home for the Christmas party. There was a large turn out with most all members able to attend. The menu provided by the members was fabulous. There was plenty of great food. Our annual gift exchange continues to be entertaining and fun. We went with Shirley's idea to leave the gifts completely wrapped while going through the "exchange". The mystery until the end was an exciting addition. We were very blessed with a warm, sunny day of nearly 70 degrees, allowing us to not have any worry with traveling to and from. Get well wishes were expressed to the two members who were under the weather at the last minute and were unable to attend.

Lottery January 2009 - All lottery tickets, stubs and money should have been returned to Dee as of December 31st. If you still have tickets, please contact Dee to make arrangements for her to get them.

From the Rescue side.....

HI EVERYONE,,,,

HAPPY NEW YEAR'S.... OK,,, I'm a bit embarrassed that I really never know what these celebrations are actually about... BUT IF MOM IS CELEBRATING,,, THEN SO AM I... 🤪

So we talked,, you know, the way we do,,, and she wants us "IN SHAPE" for our travels in June. She wants to be a little more fit to walk around and do things with her friends... as for me,,, she just wants me a little more attentive and not my usual "crazy train" on the trip. I've agreed. I don't think that's too much to ask for.

So here is OUR resolution....

It's clear there's a New Year Resolution on board
I wasn't quite sure what that means
There are no more cookies in the house
We're eating better it seems
There is a mission down the road
I've heard our adventure's in June
We must prepare to show our manners
We have to be in tune
We have a room, where we will stay
And we can't wait to arrive
Only my best manners I'll bring with me
On that I'll work and strive.
Mom's promised me walks round the lake
Learning to settle at last for God sakes
And while I'm very clear I'm not a "show dog"
Mom says that completely OK
"Let's Just Exhibit A good rescue boy"
"and show them that too is a way"
"That even a big boy who once got rejected"
Is now proud to Bark "I'm finally accepted"
So, Mom and I will dig in our heels
We're planning our walks and planning our meals
We plan to show up and not "play the fool"
We simply must share "Tough Rescues Can Rule.."

Ok,,, so now that we have written the January column,,, I'm a bit anxious. Looks like we are gearing to get in shape for the Lancaster Nationals. Mom is very excited and since I'm going with her and I love her so much... I'll do what it takes to arrive and make my Mom proud.

But I'm not going to be shy and get real excited when I see My Red Dog Aunts, they will certainly get a full kiss on the lips when I see them. Because no matter what Mom thinks... I adore them for landing me here. That is simply between me and them...

Wish us well in the new year... and of course,,, we will let little Ruby walk with us around the lake... Mom has several friends to join in.

LOVE THE BALTIMORE CREW....

Website www.gtisc.org

Our club website has pages "under construction". Our 2009 Events page will soon have all information concerning our specialties (raffles, hospitality, etc.), our participation with the ISCA Rescue bag project, the Temperament Test, etc. We are also working on adding background music and a Memorial Page to the website. We have a little change in our look with adding our club logo in color. Our Webmaster, Tammy, has a few wonderful suggestions also. While we are busy getting the club information updated and in order, members are asked to get their page updated. Look at other members' pages, read their bios, and work on yours. It can be brief, or contain more information, that is up to each individual. Please try to get this completed by the end of February and sent to Deb.

Coleen reports that we have received the 501c4 status from the IRS instead of what we requested which was 501c3 and that was due to the fact that our Articles of Incorporation which were established in 1976 did not include anything to do with rescue.
